PRAYING FOR AFGHANISTAN

In August, the world watched the shocking Taliban takeover of Afghanistan. In the days preceding and immediately following the fall of Kabul, SAT-7 PARS received an influx of prayer requests from local viewers. People face a dangerous and uncertain future, feeling anxious and abandoned. Thousands have attempted to flee the country, and there are rising fears of abuses against human rights, women's rights, and children's rights, and concern over threats to the safety of minorities, including Christians.

SAT-7 PARS Executive Director Panayiotis Keenan shares, "We continue to stand by our viewers in Afghanistan and support them through our programs and Audience Relations teams. Please join us in praying for them."

During this volatile time, we want to cover our brothers and sisters in prayer. Here are the testimonies and prayer requests of several viewers in Afghanistan who have been in contact within the past few months.

"Thank you so much for remembering us and being aware of our situation. The Lord saves and helps us. We must be in prayer." – Faheem

"I am an Afghan and living in Afghanistan at the moment. People are terrified, everyone is afraid and scared of the Taliban. I am only 16 years old and cannot take what is happening around me. I'm crying out to God right now; someone please help us. My family's situation is very bad." – Nisha

"Could you please send me books and provide teaching for me? Despite all the difficulties here, I would like to know more about Christianity."

...a few days later...

"You called me a while ago, but I am unable to carry a mobile phone for safety reasons. Whenever you are thinking of calling, please let me know in advance so that I can try to answer your call." – Edin
